

Launched in 2007, Phoenix Executive Network (PEN) is Toronto's leading transition support network for executives. PEN is a well-respected, successful member-led group with exclusive membership comprised of talented executives from a variety of functional areas and industries. The team is balanced and empowered through discussion, sharing of resources, opportunities and networks. Everyone is accountable to themselves and each other. It is an approachable, collegial, honest, and optimistic environment that welcomes new members with support and encouragement.
